

Guaranteed Auto Protection

Coverage When You Need It Most

If your car is declared a total loss due to theft or accidental damage, and you still owe more on your finance or lease contract, Guaranteed Auto Protection (GAP) may reduce or even eliminate your remaining balance.1

YOUR BENEFITS

OUT-OF-POCKET PROTECTION

May help with unexpected and potential significant out-of-pocket expenses

DEDUCTIBLE COVERAGE

GAP may cover up to $1,000 of your auto insurance deductible in most states²

LONG TERM COVERAGE

Coverage for the life of your retail or lease agreement

FINANCING OPTIONS

GAP can be added to your finance or lease contract and included as a portion of your monthly payments (subject to credit approval)³ Protection from unexpected costs, if your vehicle is declared a total loss.

- Only available when you purchase or lease your vehicle at a participating dealer.
- 1. Less any delinquent payments, taxes, and past due charges. See agreement, certificate, or waiver for complete details. Some restrictions apply.
- 2. Available in most states if it is purchased and disclosed separately on the finance/lease contract. See agreement, certificate, or waiver for complete details. GAP is not available in Hawaii.
- 3. Not all customers will qualify.

Guaranteed Auto Protection

HOW GAP WORKS

Vehicle insurance often covers the value of the vehicle at the time of an accident, not the amount it was purchased or leased for. If the amount still due on the finance or lease contract is more than the auto insurance settlement, the owner of the vehicle is generally responsible for this balance. GAP may reduce or even eliminate your remaining balance.
